

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
School of Nursing
Undergraduate Academic Counseling and Testing Program for
BSN and ABSN Students

Testing Time	Standardized Assessment	Desired Minimum Testing Outcome	SON Interventions if Outcome < Minimum	Desired Program Outcome
Entry semester	Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS)	Score at or above the national program mean as established by ATI	Individual notification and advisement of students to consider an alternate (extended) plan of study, referral to campus and SON learning resources	Early recognition of students at risk for academic difficulty in nursing program
End of selected course	Content Mastery Series: Nutrition, Fundamentals, OB, Peds, Mental Health, Community Health, Pharmacology, Leadership	Score at or above proficiency level II as established by ATI	Individual notification of students to encourage review and retesting of areas identified as “topics to study”. Feedback provided to faculty of content analysis for possible course modifications.	Early intervention and remediation in selected content areas
Final semester	Medical/Surgical Nursing (Content Mastery)	Score at or above proficiency level II as established by ATI	Individual notification and advisement of students in identified areas of weakness. Used for program outcome evaluation. Feedback provided to faculty of content analysis for possible course modifications.
Final semester	RN Comprehensive Predictor Exam	Score at or above the national program mean as established by ATI	Individual notification and advisement of students in identified areas of weakness. Used for program outcome evaluation. Feedback provided to faculty of content analysis for possible course modifications.	UNC-CH School of Nursing NCLEX passing rate above 90% each year
Following Graduation	NCLEX-RN Profile	Passing score determined by National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN)	Individual notification and advisement of students in identified areas of weakness. Used for program outcome evaluation.	UNC-CH School of Nursing NCLEX passing rate for repeat testers above 70%

UG_academic_counseling_test_process2.doc

Revised 07_11_07