

Faculty Member Takes Leadership Position in National Men in Nursing Organization

Associate Professor Ed Halloran was elected as vice president of the American Assembly for Men in Nursing at the organization's Oct. 24, 2009, meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio. He will serve a two-year term during which he will chair the education committee and will review abstracts for the September 2010 meeting in Durham, N.C.

Halloran also serves as the advisor to the School of Nursing's chapter of the American Assembly for Men in Nursing.

Associate Professor Ed Halloran was elected as vice president of the American Assembly for Men in Nursing on Oct. 24, 2009.