APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- Only UNC-Chapel Hill School of Nursing graduate students are eligible for the certificate.
- I must be in good academic standing to participate in this certificate program. That is, be actively pursuing the program of study in which I am enrolled and making satisfactory progress toward the completion of program requirements.
- Completion of the Graduate Certificate in Nursing Education requires successful completion of courses leading to a graduate degree or postmaster's certificate offered by the UNC-CH School of Nursing.
- I am responsible for completing the certificate requirements as summarized at Graduate Certificate in Nursing Education (<https://nursing.unc.edu/academic-programs/graduate-certificates/>)
- Submission of this form allows the School of Nursing to keep track of which students are pursuing the certificate and provide appropriate student advising. It does not prevent me from opting out of the certificate later on, if I decide to do so.
- If I decide to opt out of the certificate, I will contact Amy Burdette and inform her of this decision.
