

High Risk Newborn (Newborn Assessment & Expected Developmental Milestones)

Instructor: Andrea Biondi DNP

Length: 3 hr

Program Description: Basic newborn assessment and topics specific to the premature newborn after discharge home

Learning Objectives: At the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Describe key assessment areas of the newborn exam
- Describe abnormal variants in body systems of newborn
- Explain the most common risk factors of premature infants in the newborn period
- Explain the most common complications of growth and development of the premature infant in the first year of life
- Discuss the most common types and etiologies of respiratory distress in the newborn and premature infant

Audience:

RNs and other healthcare professionals